

Procrastination

Is the thief of time.

This is why some people fail to get their photographs taken.

The instantaneous process removes old time objections.

We begin invoicing and as we can invoice cash easier than goods we propose to convert our goods into cash, no matter what it costs. Overcoats, boys' and men's suits, shirts, underwear, hats, caps, neckwear and all kinds of men's furnishing, in fact everything we have in stock will be sold at a figure that will make them go. They are truly BARGAINS. Take advantage of them while they last.

Yours to please.

MARIETTA DAILY LEADER

MONDAY, JAN. 27, 1896

—Mr. Charles Schletter desires to extend thanks publicly to the many friends and neighbors who so kindly assisted him in his recent bereavement.

—William Zumbro was arrested Sunday morning by Constable Dye on a warrant charging him with jumping a board bill. Complaint was made by Landlord McVay, of Lowell. Zumbro had a hearing before Squire Guyton, pleaded guilty and was fined $2 and costs.

—The River and Harbor Committee of Congress has accepted an invitation of Colonel John L. Vance, of Gallipolis, President of the Ohio River Improvement Association, to visit the Ohio river and see for themselves its needs and requirements. The new and elegant steamer Virginia will be placed at their disposal, and the trip will begin at Pittsburg, where the Chamber of Commerce and Coal Exchange will banquet the committee and demonstrations of the immense river traffic will be shown in midstream.

—Conductor Wilson, of the south-bound Ohio River train, had an exciting time last night. At the different oil fields a number of oil men got aboard coming to Parkersburg to spend the night. A number of them were afflicted with a little too much drink and the conductor had his hands full in handling them. A man named Evans got into a quarrel with the conductor and threatened to do him bodily harm. The trainman grabbed a poker to protect himself and things looked blue for a time, but the arrival of the train in this city caused hostilities to be declared off.—Parkersburg Journal.

—Col. Perry, owner of the Golden Novelty Museum, which for two weeks has been in this city, will go from here to Caldwell to exhibit. The Colonel has a show well worthy of patronage, it having a large number of diversified attractions.

—Mrs. R. C. Dawes will entertain the Junior Club tonight. R. D. Cooke will read an article from the Review of Reviews on the Monroe Doctrine. Professor J. Allen Smith, of the College, will criticize the article.

—Master Earl Willis entertained a number of his young friends at dinner Saturday evening in honor of Francis McMillen.

—The six new passenger locomotives that were delivered to the B. & O. S. W. during the past week are expected to prove record-breakers. The officials say that they have no superiors in the west, and when they get limbered up and ready for passenger service will be used on trains Nos. 1, 2, 3 and 4—three between Chillicothe and Cincinnati and three between Cincinnati and Washington, Ind. The engines are numbered from 140 to 145 inclusive, and are now doing freight service to get the wearing parts to running smoothly. They were built by the Baldwin Locomotive Works and are beauties.

—Josephus Rowland, the veteran B. & O. engineer, has been placed on the retired list after a service of thirty years. He was next to the oldest engineer on the road. A. P. E. Lucas, engineer of engine No. 529, Grafton local, falls heir to Mr. Rowland's engine No. 501.

—This afternoon at 3 o'clock, standard time, at the Relic Room, the first reading of the Woman's Centennial Association, of this winter, will be held. The subject is, "Our Recent Journeys Through England and Scotland," by Marietta ladies. A competent committee of ladies has been appointed to arrange a program for each week's reading, and we are promised some enjoyable papers on various topics. Ladies are cordially invited to be present.

—The Athletic Association of the University of Cincinnati, which has been twice turned down in its attempt to organize a football league, leaving out Marietta, is still quarreling over the matter and wants another meeting for February 8th. The rules adopted by the College presidents are made the pretext for further display of Cincinnati's ill feeling for Marietta. The rules were published in the Leader a few weeks ago and, while conceded to be stringent, they are yet eminently fair and just to all and will do much toward purging the sport of many bad features. They ought to stand, despite Cincinnati's kick.

—Last night while A. D. Alderman, of the Marietta Register, was on his way home, when in front of the jail on Putnam street he was held up by a stranger. As soon as Alderman informed the robber that he was a newspaper man the highwayman gave him a dime and went off about his business.—Parkersburg Sentinel.

—Dudley Ferguson left for Watertown this morning on a visit to his wife and other relatives.

IN THE OIL FIELDS.

The Reynolds well back of Constitution is through the Big Injun sand and going for the Berea, which is expected to be reached at about 1000 feet.

Longfellow Bros. last two strings of tools at Macksburg Thursday.

The Hills well on Archer's Fork, which was shot Tuesday, behaved in a manner so unsatisfactory that it will probably be drilled to the deeper sand. The owners of the well are trying to extend the lease eight months and if successful will drill deeper.

BUCKHANNON, W. Va., Jan. 24.—Great excitement prevails in Upshur and Lewis counties over what is believed to be the Eldorado oil field of West Virginia. Thousands of acres of land have been leased by Prof. I. C. White, of Morgantown, and Pittsburgh parties. A well has been located near Seymour Station, a point half way between Buckhannon and Weston. The derrick is nearly completed, all the machinery is on the ground and drilling will be commenced in a few days. Three more wells have been located, work on which will soon be commenced and pushed with vigor. Bonuses are being offered for leases and sixty day options are the order of the day.

WABASH, Ind., Jan. 25.—The Mississippi river, in the southern part of this county, is verily a river of oil just now. Large quantities of crude petroleum are being carried down the river, the tributaries of which run through the Indiana oil field. There is also considerable oil in the Wabash, which has rapidly risen.

OIL ON THE TOOLS.

Yesterday the tools which were said to have been lost in the Lehman well were found and were pulled out of the well. The tools were covered with oil. The well was immediately shut down and notices posted, warning trespassers. The owners claim they are in the Injun and have oil. It is to be hoped that this is true. Time and the drill will tell.—Journal.

NEW SENATORS.

Cannon and Brown Favor a High Protective Tariff and Free Coinage of Silver.

OHAMA, Neb., Jan. 25.—Frank J. Cannon and Arthur Brown, the first United States senators from the new state of Utah, passed through this city Friday afternoon, en route to Washington. The train stopped but five minutes here, but this was sufficient time for Mr. Cannon to speak enthusiastically but briefly of subjects of national importance, and more particularly on those of direct interest to the state of Utah. Mr. Cannon said: "We are heartily in favor of the free and unlimited coinage of silver at the ratio of 16 to 1. The reason for our belief in silver is that it is for the good, not only of Utah and the entire west, but for the people of this country. The unlimited coinage of the white metal would open the mines of the west, give money to the people and do more direct benefit than any other thing except protection."

"Then you are a protectionist?" "Yes, sir, and a high one. Mr. Brown and myself are firm believers in a high protective tariff, for we believe that only by a tariff is the country greatly benefited. We are in favor of as high tariff on wool as there can be made, for by so doing we will have from utter ruin an industry that is rapidly dying, that of sheep raising. The high tariff on wool would not only aid the sheep grower of Utah but of every state in the union. We will vote the way the people of Utah vote, and that is for free silver for him who delivers into the mountain side with his pick, and for high tariff on wool for him who herds the sheep on the lonely mesa."

A Valuable Prescription. Editor Morrison, of Worthington, Ind., "Sun," writes: "You have a valuable prescription in Electric Bitters, and I can cheerfully recommend it for Constipation and Sick Headache, and as a general system tonic it has no equal." Mrs. Annie Steble, 2925 Cottage Grove Ave., Chicago, was all run down, could not eat nor digest food, had a backache which never left her and felt tired and weary, but six bottles of Electric Bitters restored her health and renewed her strength. Prices 50 cents and $1.00. Get a Bottle at W. H. Steyer's Drug Store.
